Welcome

DEAR FRIENDS,

We are delighted to welcome you to Chicago Shakespeare for today's performance of The Wizard of Oz. The story, based on L. Frank Baum's novel and the 1939 MGM film, has captivated generations of young people with its timeless tunes and dazzling fantasy world. As Dorothy travels along the Yellow Brick Road, she discovers that, with the help of her friends, she has everything inside her that she needs to face the challenges life throws her way. Our wish is that audiences of all ages are inspired and uplifted by its themes of hope, courage, friendship, and the value of home.

Summer family musicals are a special tradition at Chicago Shakespeare, dating back to our move to Navy Pier twenty years ago. It is truly a joy to introduce the magical world of theater to young people, whose boundless capacity for imagination is the perfect match for the wonder of live performance. Whether today marks your first visit or you're a regular at Chicago Shakespeare, we hope you will continue to enjoy and engage with our Theater for years to come.

For more family fun this summer, join us at one of eighteen parks across the city during the eighth annual Chicago Shakespeare in the Parks tour. A professional production of The Comedy of Errors, staged by Jeff Award-winning Director David H. Bell, plays from July 18 to August 18. Pack a picnic and enjoy a free performance of Shakespeare's hilarious tale of mistaken identity.

And now, we're off to see The Wizard! ■

About CST

Under the leadership of Artistic Director Barbara Gaines and Executive Director Criss Henderson, Chicago Shakespeare has redefined what a great American Shakespeare theater can be—a company that defies theatrical category. This Regional Tony Award-winning theater's year-round season features as many as twenty productions and 650 performances—including plays, musicals, world premieres, family programming, and presentations from around the globe. The work is enjoyed by 225,000 audience members annually, with one in four under the age of eighteen. Chicago Shakespeare is the city's leading presenter of international work, and in touring its own productions across five continents has garnered multiple accolades, including the prestigious Laurence Olivier Award. Emblematic of its role as a global theater, the company spearheaded Shakespeare 400 Chicago, celebrating Shakespeare's legacy in a citywide, yearlong international arts and culture festival, which engaged more than one million people. The Theater's nationally acclaimed arts in literacy programs support the work of English and drama teachers, and bring Shakespeare to life on stage for tens of thousands of their students each school year. Over the summer, the company tours a professional production of Shakespeare's work, free for all, to neighborhood parks across the city. In 2017 the Theater unveiled The Yard at Chicago Shakespeare—with its innovative design that has changed the shape of theater architecture. Together with the Jentes Family Courtyard Theater and the Thoma Theater Upstairs, The Yard positions Chicago Shakespeare as the city's most versatile performing arts center. ■

His works anticipated century-later commonplaces, such as television, augmented reality, laptop computers (The Master Key), wireless telephones (Tik-Tok of Oz), women in high-risk, action-heavy occupations (Mary Louise in the Country), and the ubiquity of advertising on clothing (Aunt Jane's Nieces at Work).

He had a long and productive partnership with Johnny Mercer with many resulting hits, including "That Old Black Magic," "Blues in the Night," and "Ac-Cent-Tchu-Ate-the-Positive." Broadway musicals include Bloomer Girl, St. Louis Woman, House of Flowers, Jamaica, and Saratoga. Films include The Pretty Girl, The Farmer Takes a Wife, and Gay-Purree. Broadway musicals include Bloomer Girl, Finian's Rainbow, Flahooley, Jamaica, and Darling of the Day. Films

In 1929 he was signed to a contract by Louis B. Shakespeare Society

Members of the Shakespeare Society provide vital annual support to sustain Chicago Shakespeare Theater's mission. The commitment of these steadfast individuals helped to build a home for Shakespeare in Chicago that has endured for the past three decades. We are deeply grateful for their extraordinary investment in the Theater's guiding principles to serve as a cultural leader, citizen, and ambassador for our city.

Individual Contributors

Thanks to the contributions of CST's family of donors, we can continue to delight audiences in Chicago and around the world through our trademark approach to theater that is inspired by the spirit of Shakespeare. Annual donations offset the substantial expense of producing theater of uncompromising quality and ambition. In recognition of the enhanced level of support provided by our Bard Circle donors of $1,000 or more, CST provides exclusive privileges and behind-the-scenes access.
