

HERMOSA

Hermosa is a vibrant residential community known for its lush parks, trails, and other green spaces for residents to stroll, picnic, and play, as well as its local tiendas and taquerias. KELVYN PARK is the largest park in the Hermosa area.

AUSTIN

COLUMBUS PARK is in Chicago's largest neighborhood—one rich in diversity, culture, and spirit. From community garden projects to its renowned soul food restaurants and beyond, residents are deeply connected to their neighbors, churches, and local institutions.

LITTLE VILLAGE

"La Villita" offers a slice of Mexican-American life in Chicago, known as the Quinceañera Capital of the Midwest. Global grocery stores, bakeries, retail locations, and vibrant murals fill its thriving business district. PIOTROWSKI PARK was named after one of its lifelong neighborhood residents.

CHINATOWN

PING TOM MEMORIAL PARK, on the south bank of the Chicago River, offers spectacular skyline views from Chicago's century-old Chinatown. The central district evokes its deep heritage, with statues, pagodas, ornate archways, family-owned restaurants, and storefronts.

ENGLEWOOD

With over 70,000 residents and many highly engaged community organizations, Englewood is home to ambitious business incubators that support small business owners and entrepreneurs. The green space of OGDEN PARK offers a variety of recreational, educational, and social services.

WEST PULLMAN

Home to WEST PULLMAN PARK, this historic community on the far South Side of Chicago has a strong network of block clubs, churches, and community groups, including the Kroc Community Center—the largest of its kind in Illinois.