

ENTERTAINING AT CHICAGO SHAKESPEARE THEATER

Chicago Shakespeare Theater serves as the cultural anchor of historic Navy Pier on downtown Chicago's lakefront. Our annual producing season features as many as 16 plays and 650 performances. CST's current home contains two dynamic theater spaces that are designed to accommodate a wide variety of staging needs and concepts. Sir Peter Hall, Founder of Great Britain's Royal Shakespeare Company, calls it "one of the best, if not the best, Shakespeare spaces in the world."

Jentes Family Courtyard Theater

The Jentes Family Courtyard Theater was inspired by the Royal Shakespeare Company's Swan Theatre. A 500-seat theater, it features a thrust stage. This configuration fosters an intimate, immediate relationship between the actors and their audience.

Carl and Marilyn Thoma Theater Upstairs

The Carl and Marilyn Thoma Theater Upstairs at CST is a flexible, 200-seat venue, suiting the creative choices of an artistic team with practically limitless versatility.
