We’re so glad you’re here! You have a very important role to play today. We can’t tell this story without you and your IMAGINATION! Together we’ll travel with Pinocchio as he has many adventures and tries to figure out the RIGHT thing to do. Here are some things to look for as we begin our journey…

PUPPETS!
How many different kinds of puppets do you see in the show? Can you tell how some of them work?

MUSIC!
What is your favorite song? And what do you feel when you hear it?

COSTUMES!
What can you learn about the characters based just on how they are dressed? If you could wear one of the costumes, which would you pick?

SCENERY!
Which is your favorite place Pinocchio goes? And what does it look like?

MAGIC!
Special effects play a role in helping to tell the story. What moment of “stage magic” surprises you the most?

Color this ocean scene and make it come to life!

And... you can draw a picture of Pinocchio and Geppetto in the whale's belly!
I'm trying to find my way HOME. Using a pencil or your finger, please help me choose the right path!
Learn to trust the feelings that you feel. That’s the start of being human. The start of being real.”

On the way home...

We hope you enjoyed seeing The Adventures of Pinocchio today, and we’re sure you have a lot to think—AND TALK—about. On your trip home, have a conversation about what you saw today and remember! You can use these questions to help you get started:

★ What was something about the show that SURPRISED you?

★ If you also saw a movie about Pinocchio, what was one thing that was different in the PLAY from in the MOVIE?
