CHICAGO SHAKESPEARE THEATER

Welcome

DEAR FRIENDS,

Thank you for coming out to celebrate the holidays with CST and Chicago hip-hop sensation the Q Brothers. After a sold-out run last season, we are proud to bring A Q Brothers' Christmas Carol, a hip-hop reinterpretation of Charles Dickens' perennial classic, back to the theater Upstairs at Chicago Shakespeare.

This production marks the third collaboration between Creative Producer Rick Boynton and the Q Brothers, following two Shakespearean "ad-rap-tations"—Funk It Up About Nothin' and Othello: The Remix. Since its premiere at Shakespeare's Globe during London's 2012 Cultural Olympiad, Othello: The Remix has toured to festivals around the world, including: Australia, England, Germany, New Zealand, Poland, Scotland, South Korea and the United Arab Emirates. The global sensation will return home to Chicago Shakespeare in 2016 as part of Shakespeare 400 Chicago—a yearlong, international arts festival that will celebrate four centuries of Shakespeare's legacy through theater, music, dance, art and cuisine.

Combining the artistic resource of a leading cultural institution like CST with the talent of generative artists like the Q Brothers produces a theatrical experience that resonates with audiences of all ages. We are thrilled to serve as a creative home for these gifted artists as they bring classic works to life in bold, inventive ways.

So, grab a drink, sit back and make merry! ■

About CST

A global theatrical force, CST is known for vibrant productions that reflect Shakespeare's genius for storytelling, language and empathy for the human condition. The Theater has evolved into a dynamic company, producing award-winning plays at its home on Navy Pier, throughout Chicago's schools and neighborhoods, and on stages around the world. CST serves as a partner in literacy to Chicago Public Schools, working alongside English teachers to help struggling readers connect with Shakespeare in the classroom, and bringing his text to life on stage for 40,000 students every year. And each summer, 30,000 families and audience members of all ages welcome CST's free Chicago Shakespeare in the Parks into their neighborhoods across the far north, west and south sides. Reflecting the global city we call home, CST is the leading producer of international work in Chicago and has toured its plays abroad to Africa, Asia, Australia and Europe.

The Theater's tradition of excellence and civic leadership has been honored with numerous national and international awards, including the Regional Theatre Tony Award, three Laurence Olivier Awards and eighty Joseph Jefferson Awards. CST was the 2012 recipient of the Folger Shakespeare Library's national Shakespeare Steward Award for its innovative teaching of Shakespeare in American classrooms. Among its many international engagements, CST participated in the Royal Shakespeare Company's 2006 Complete Works Festival and was selected to represent North America at the Globe to Globe festival as part of London's 2012 Cultural Olympiad. ■

RICHARD JORDAN PRODUCTIONS

(Producing Partner) is an Olivier- and Tony Award-winning production company under the artistic leadership of British producer Richard Jordan. His London-based company was founded in 1998 and has been at the forefront of developing and presenting works by a diverse range of established and emerging writers and artists. The recipient of over 30 major international theater awards and enjoying associations with many of the world's leading theaters and arts organizations, the company has produced over 190 productions in the UK and 21 other countries, including 70 world premieres and 81 European, Australian or US premieres. Described by the UK's Stage newspaper as "one of the UK's most prolific theatre producers" and named seven times in their top 100 theater professionals, Richard was the first recipient of the TIF/Society of London Theatre Producers Award and in 2009 a finalist in the British Council's first-ever Creative Entrepreneur Award. In 2010 for his services to the UK and international theatre industries, he was selected for life time inclusion in A & C Black's Who's Who. In London his co-production of Roadkill won the 2012 Laurence Olivier Award for Outstanding Achievement at an Affiliate Theatre. In New York, his co-production of Christopher Durang's new play Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike received the 2013 Tony Award for Best New Play, as well as the Drama Desk, Drama League, New York Critics, Broadway.com and outer Critic Circle Best New Play Awards. Past productions in the US have received the Helen Hayes, US Black Alliance, Jeff and Obie Awards. Richard enjoys a close relationship with Chicago Shakespeare Theater where he has produced: It'soseng; en route; A History of Everything; Roadkill; Dickens' Women; Cadre; Since I Suppose; world tours of The Q Brothers' Funk It Up About Nothin' and Othello: The Remix. They are currently working together on various productions for the forthcoming Shakespeare 400 Chicago Festival.

BARBARA GAINES

(Artistic Director) is the founder and artistic director of Chicago Shakespeare Theater, where she has directed more than thirty of Shakespeare's plays.

Honors include: the 2008 Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre; the prestigious Honorary OBE (Officer of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire) in recognition of her contributions strengthening British-American cultural relations; and Joseph Jefferson Awards for Best Production (Hamlet, Cymbeline, King Lear and The Comedy of Errors), and for Best Director (Cymbeline, King Lear and The Comedy of Errors). At Lyric Opera of Chicago, Ms. Gaines directed Macbeth and this season's The Marriage of Figaro. She received an Honorary Doctorate of Letters from the University of Birmingham (UK), the University Club of Chicago's Cultural Award, the Public Humanities Award from the Illinois Humanities Council and the Spirit of Loyola Award. Ms. Gaines serves on the Shakespearean Council of Shakespeare's Globe Theatre in London.

CRISS HENDERSON

(Executive Director) has produced CST's past twenty-six seasons. Under his leadership, CST has become one of the nation's leading regional theaters and one of Chicago's most celebrated cultural organizations, honored with the 2008 Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre, as well as multiple Laurence Olivier and Joseph Jefferson Awards. Mr. Henderson has garnered numerous honors, including: the 2013 Cultural Innovation Award from Chicago Innovation Awards; Arts Administrator of the Year by Arts Management Magazine at the Kennedy Center, and the Chevalier de L'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the Minister of Culture of France. He was named among the top 40 business people under the age of 40 in Crain's Chicago Business. He serves as president of the Producers' Association of Chicago-area Theatres and on the Board of Directors of the League of Chicago Theatres. Mr. Henderson is director of the MFA/Arts Leadership Program, a two-year graduate-level curriculum in arts management training, created through a joint partnership between Chicago Shakespeare Theater and The Theatre School at DePaul University.

The scenic, costume and lighting designers of this production are represented by United Scenic Artists, Local USA-829 of the IATSE.

Shakespeare Society

Members of the Shakespeare Society provide vital annual support to sustain Chicago Shakespeare Theater's mission. The commitment of these steadfast individuals helped to build a home for Shakespeare in Chicago that has endured for the past quarter-century. We are deeply grateful for their extraordinary investment in the Theater's guiding principles to serve as a cultural leader, citizen and ambassador for our city.

Individual Contributors

Thanks to the contributions of CST's family of donors, we can continue to delight audiences in Chicago and around the world through our trademark approach to theater that is inspired by the spirit of Shakespeare. Annual donations offset the substantial expense of producing theater of uncompromising quality and ambition. In recognition of the enhanced level of support provided by our Bard Circle donors of $1,000 or more, CST provides exclusive privileges and behind-the-scenes access.

Reflects gifts received between July 1, 2014 and November 9, 2015.
