Welcome

DEAR FRIENDS,

We've just launched our 30th Anniversary Season at Chicago Shakespeare and could not think of a better way to celebrate than the current scope of work on our stages and in the community. As we write, our production of Twelfth Night is touring, free for all, to nineteen Chicago neighborhoods; rehearsals have just begun for Part Two of Barbara's epic history cycle, Tug of War, and today, our yearlong international festival—Shakespeare 400 Chicago—welcomes the incomparable Jonathan Pryce as Shylock in The Merchant of Venice from Shakespeare's Globe.

We are excited to continue our relationship with this renowned theater, where Barbara has long served on The Globe Council. The Merchant of Venice marks the third time a Globe production has toured to CST's stages, beginning in 2003 with its "original practices" production of Twelfth Night, starring Academy Award-winner Mark Rylance as Olivia, and again in 2014 with its ambitious world-circling tour of Hamlet, presented in 197 countries. In 2014, CST's World's Stage series welcomed Kneehigh's production of Tristan and Yseult directed by Emma Rice, now the Globe's artistic director. The sole North American theater invited to participate in the 2012 Cultural Olympiad "Globe to Globe" festival, CST debuted on the Globe's stage with its production of Othello: The Remix, created with the Q Brothers.

This continuing cultural exchange is a highlight of the Theater's mission to bring the world's great theater artists to Chicago and Chicago Shakespeare to the world. Over the course of 2016, we will continue to present offerings from the UK, as well as China, India, Mexico and Poland.

JEWELERS

INTRODUCING THE YARD AT CHICAGO SHAKESPEARE

The Yard will be Chicago Shakespeare's third stage. Together with its two existing performance spaces, The Yard will amplify the Theater's artistic vision and community impact. Introducing a new trend in theater architecture to Chicago, the design features a series of mobile "towers" that allow for The Yard to be configured in a variety of shapes and sizes, with audience capacities ranging from 150-850.

About CST

CST is a global theatrical force, known for vibrant productions that reflect Shakespeare's genius for storytelling, language, and empathy for the human condition. Throughout 2016, CST is spearheading the international arts and culture festival, Shakespeare 400 Chicago, a yearlong, citywide celebration of the playwright's 400-year legacy. Under the leadership of Artistic Director Barbara Gaines and Executive Director Criss Henderson, CST is dedicated to creating extraordinary productions of classics, new works and family programming; to unlocking Shakespeare's work for educators and students; and to serving as Chicago's cultural ambassador through its World's Stage Series. CST serves as a partner in literacy to Chicago Public Schools, working alongside English teachers to help struggling readers connect with Shakespeare in the classroom. His words are brought to life on stage for 40,000 students from across the midwest every year. Each summer, 30,000 families and audience members of all ages welcome the free Chicago Shakespeare in the Parks tour into their neighborhoods across the far north, west and south sides of the city. Reflecting the global city it calls home, CST is the leading producer of international work in Chicago, and has toured its plays to Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, Canada/North America and the Middle East.

CST is proud to take an active role in empowering the next generation of literate, engaged cultural champions and creative minds. The Theater's tradition of excellence and civic leadership has been honored with numerous national and international awards, including the Regional Theatre Tony Award, three Laurence Olivier Awards, and eighty total Joseph Jefferson Awards. CST's work with Chicago Public School students and teachers was recognized by the White House in 2014 with the National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award. Among its many international engagements, CST participated in the Royal Shakespeare Company's 2006 Complete Works Festival and was selected to represent North America at the Globe to Globe festival as part of London's 2012 Cultural Olympiad. ■

BARBARA GAINES

(Artistic Director/Carl and Marilyn Thoma Endowed Chair) founded Chicago Shakespeare Theater, where she has directed over 30 of Shakespeare's plays. Honors include:

the 2008 Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre; the prestigious Honorary OBE (Officer of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire) in recognition of her contributions strengthening British-American cultural relations; and Joseph Jefferson Awards for Best Production (Hamlet, Cymbeline, King Lear and The Comedy of Errors), and for Best Director (Cymbeline, King Lear and The Comedy of Errors). Beyond Chicago Shakespeare, Ms. Gaines has directed at the Royal Shakespeare Company in Stratford-on-Avon, Lyric Opera of Chicago, and The Old Globe in San Diego. As the cornerstone production of Shakespeare 400 Chicago, the 2016 international celebration of Shakespeare's legacy, she created a world premiere Shakespeare history cycle, Tug of War, including the rarely staged Edward III. Gaines received an Honorary Doctorate of Letters from the University of Birmingham (UK), the University Club of Chicago's Cultural Award, the Public Humanities Award from the Illinois Humanities Council and the Spirit of Loyola Award. Ms. Gaines serves on The Globe Council (Shakespeare's Globe, London).

CRISS HENDERSON

(Executive Director) has produced CST's past twenty-seven seasons, including this year's city wide international festival Shakespeare 400 Chicago. Under his leadership, CST has become one of the nation's leading regional theaters and one of Chicago's most celebrated cultural organizations, honored with the 2008 Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre, as well as multiple Laurence Olivier and Joseph Jefferson Awards. Mr. Henderson has garnered multiple honors, including: the 2013 Cultural Innovation Award from the Chicago Innovation Awards; the Arts Administrator of the Year by Arts Management Magazine at the Kennedy Center and the Chevalier de L'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the Minister of Culture of France. He was named among the top 40 business people under the age of 40 in Crain's Chicago Business. He serves as president of the Producers' Association of Chicago-area Theaters and is director of the MFA/Arts Leadership Program, a two-year graduate-level curriculum in arts management training created through a joint partnership between Chicago Shakespeare Theater and The Theatre School at DePaul University.

Actors' Equity Association (AEA), founded in 1913, represents more than 45,000 actors and stage managers in the United States. Equity seeks to advance, promote and foster the art of live theatre as an essential component of our society. Equity negotiates wages and working conditions, providing a wide range of benefits, including health and pension plans. AEA is a member of the AFL-CIO, and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. The Equity emblem is our mark of excellence. www.actorsequity.org

About Shakespeare's Globe

Founded by the pioneering American actor and director Sam Wanamaker, Shakespeare's Globe is dedicated to the exploration of Shakespeare's work and the playhouses for which he wrote many of his greatest plays. Through the Globe Theatre, the Sam Wanamaker Playhouse, Globe Education and the Globe Exhibition & Tour, our aim is to further the enjoyment and understanding of Shakespeare in performance.

Since the reconstructed Globe opened for performances in 1997, we now welcome over a million visitors a year from all over the world to take part in workshops, lectures and staged readings; to visit the exhibition and tour the Globe Theatre—and of course to watch plays, ranging from productions which explore some of the original practices employed in Shakespeare's theater to world premieres of new writing.

Our vision continues to grow. In 2012, Globe to Globe presented every Shakespeare play, each in a different language, creating a multilingual showcase for Shakespeare, the Globe and London. We now tour productions throughout the UK, Europe, the United States and Asia. In 2014 we launched our world-wide tour of Hamlet, which, by April 2016, had played to 197 countries in the world, covering over 310,000 km. In recent years, we also completed the Sackler Studios, allowing Globe Education, who work with over 120,000 students a year, to develop a hugely diverse program of schools workshops, public events, university courses and local and London-wide community projects. In 2014 we completed the Sam Wanamaker Playhouse, allowing us to present works written specifically for an indoor theater and to offer a year-round program of plays, concerts and special events. In the same year we also launched the Globe Player, offering a huge back catalogue of our productions online.

We receive no annual government subsidy, but rely on the generosity of individuals, corporate partners, trusts, foundations and other supporters to sustain and develop our artistic and educational work. The next stage to fulfill Sam's vision will be through Project Prospero, creating a Global resource for Shakespeare Education and Studies including a new Library, Archive (creating a permanent home for the John Wolfson rare book collection currently in Manhattan) and a new Exhibition. Included in the plans are significantly improved production resources and facilities to support our now year-round playing—finally cementing our reputation as the leading authority on Shakespeare in the world.

Shakespeare Society

Members of the Shakespeare Society provide vital annual support to sustain Chicago Shakespeare Theater's mission. The commitment of these steadfast individuals helped to build a home for Shakespeare in Chicago that has endured for the past quarter-century. We are deeply grateful for their extraordinary investment in the Theater's guiding principles to serve as a cultural leader, citizen and ambassador for our city.

Individual Contributors

Thanks to the contributions of CST's family of donors, we can continue to delight audiences in Chicago and around the world through our trademark approach to theater that is inspired by the spirit of Shakespeare. Annual donations offset the substantial expense of producing theater of uncompromising quality and ambition. In recognition of the enhanced level of support provided by our Bard Circle donors of $1,000 or more, CST provides exclusive privileges and behind-the-scenes access.
