About CST

A global theatrical force, Chicago Shakespeare Theater (CST) is known for vibrant productions that reflect Shakespeare's genius for storytelling, musicality of language, and empathy for the human condition. Under the leadership of Artistic Director Barbara Gaines and Executive Director Criss Henderson, Chicago Shakespeare has redefined what a great American Shakespeare theater can be—a company that, delighting in the unexpected, defies theatrical category. A Regional Tony Award-winning theater, CST produces acclaimed plays at its home on Navy Pier, throughout Chicago's schools and neighborhoods, and on stages around the world. In 2017, the Theater unveiled its third year-round venue, The Yard at Chicago Shakespeare, with an innovative design that changed the shape of theater-making. Together with the Jentes Family Courtyard Theater and the Thoma Theater Upstairs at Chicago Shakespeare, The Yard positions CST as the city's most versatile performing arts venue.

Chicago Shakespeare's year-round season features as many as twenty productions and 650 performances—including plays, musicals, world premieres, and visiting international presentations—to engage a broad, multigenerational audience of 225,000 community members. Recognized in 2014 in a White House ceremony hosted by First Lady Michelle Obama, CST's education programs support literacy and creativity for 40,000 students each year. Each summer, 30,000 family audiences welcome the free Chicago Shakespeare in the Parks tour into their neighborhoods across the far north, west, and south sides of the city. The Theater is the leading producer of international work in Chicago and, touring its own plays across North America and abroad to Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, and the Middle East, CST has garnered multiple accolades, including the prestigious Laurence Olivier Award. Emblematic of its role as a global theater, CST spearheaded Shakespeare 400 Chicago, a yearlong international arts and culture festival, which engaged an estimated 1.1 million people through 863 events at 231 locations across the city in 2016—all in celebration of Shakespeare's 400-year legacy. ■

Welcome

DEAR FRIENDS,

Thank you for coming out to celebrate the holidays with Chicago Shakespeare and the Q Brothers! Developed in 2013 through our new work program helmed by Creative Producer Rick Boynton, Q Brothers Christmas Carol is now a Chicago tradition. Featuring an irresistible score and a lot of heart, this new take on the Dickens classic marks the third collaboration between CST and the Q Brothers, following two Shakespeare “ad-rap-tations” that toured the globe—Funk It Up About Nothin’ and Othello: The Remix.

It is only fitting that today’s production be performed in our new, state-of-the-imagination theater, The Yard at Chicago Shakespeare. Both share a spirit of the unexpected and reinvention: every time you enter The Yard, the relationship between the stage and audience will be redefined. By moving its nine mobile seating towers, the theater you are sitting in today can seat up to 850 people or as few as 150. The stage can be placed in any position imaginable.

Over the years, we hope that you will come back time and time again to experience Shakespeare, new work, musicals, and productions imported from across the world. You will never know what environment awaits you, but the artistry is certain to bear the hallmark of our company—work that is surprising, bold, and audacious.

We look forward to welcoming you back to the Theater soon. Until then, grab a drink, sit back, and make merry! ■

Chicago is now home to one of the most flexible theater venues in the world.

The Yard at Chicago Shakespeare introduces a new trend in theater architecture to our city—
a dynamic design featuring nine mobile audience “towers” that can be arranged in a wide variety of ways.

With each visit, you will come to “expect the unexpected” as the relationship between audience and actor is redefined by the vision
of each production’s creative team.

We look forward to welcoming you again
and again to...

A three-theater campus—
encompassing our Courtyard Theater,
Upstairs at Chicago
Shakespeare, and
The Yard—will enable us to offer more productions, extend runs of successful shows, and greatly increase our service to students.
