About CST

A global theatrical force, Chicago Shakespeare Theater (CST) is known for vibrant productions that reflect Shakespeare's genius for storytelling, musicality of language, and empathy for the human condition. Under the leadership of Artistic Director Barbara Gaines and Executive Director Criss Henderson, Chicago Shakespeare has redefined what a great American Shakespeare theater can be—a company that, delighting in the unexpected, defies theatrical category. A Regional Tony Award-winning theater, CST produces acclaimed plays at its home on Navy Pier, throughout Chicago's schools and neighborhoods, and on stages around the world. In 2017, the Theater unveiled its third year-round venue, The Yard at Chicago Shakespeare, with an innovative design that has changed the shape of theater-making. Together with the Jentes Family Courtyard Theater and the Thoma Theater Upstairs at Chicago Shakespeare, The Yard positions CST as the city's most versatile performing arts venue.

Chicago Shakespeare's year-round season features as many as twenty productions and 650 performances—including plays, musicals, world premieres, and visiting international presentations—to engage a broad, multigenerational audience of 225,000 community members. Recognized in 2014 in a White House ceremony hosted by First Lady Michelle Obama, CST's education programs support literacy and creativity for 40,000 students each year. Each summer, 30,000 family audiences welcome the free Chicago Shakespeare in the Parks tour into their neighborhoods across the far north, west, and south sides of the city. The Theater is the leading producer of international work in Chicago and, touring its own plays across North America and abroad to Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, and the Middle East, CST has garnered multiple accolades, including the prestigious Laurence Olivier Award. Emblematic of its role as a global theater, CST spearheaded Shakespeare 400 Chicago, a yearlong international arts and culture festival, which engaged an estimated 1.1 million people through 863 events at 231 locations across the city in 2016—all in celebration of Shakespeare's 400-year legacy. ■

Welcome

DEAR FRIENDS,

Chicago Shakespeare is thrilled to have you with us today to enjoy Peter Pan, A Musical Adventure. Under the direction of Amber Mak, this beloved classic will take audiences on a wild ride with the Darling children as they journey to Neverland. Based on J.M. Barrie's tale about the boy who wouldn't grow up and his band of Lost Boys, this heartwarming musical dazzles with a captivating score by George Stiles and Anthony Drewe, the award-winning songwriting duo behind Disney and Cameron Mackintosh's smash hit Mary Poppins.

Summer family musicals are a longstanding tradition at Chicago Shakespeare, dating back to our move to Navy Pier nineteen years ago. By bringing to life stories from the fairy tale canon, we introduce our youngest patrons to the power of live performance. We hope that the memories your family makes here today will help foster a lifelong love of theater.

You can also explore Shakespeare's canon this summer with our Chicago Shakespeare in the Parks tour. A professional production of A Midsummer Night's Dream will tour, free for all, to eighteen neighborhoods across the city, from July 25 to August 26. We invite you to grab a picnic and join us for this rollicking romantic comedy, which Barbara very much looks forward to directing.

Enjoy the show! ■
